

Living by the Book: Application

Review

Observation _____

Interpretation _____

Application _____

The Bible was not written to satisfy your curiosity or help you live a better life...not to help you be a better version of you. It was written to transform your life into God's version of you, more and more like Christ.

The object of getting into the Bible is to let the Bible get into you.

Let's start with what's NOT application

1. _____ is not application
2. _____ substituted for _____
3. _____ substituted for _____
4. _____ substituted for _____

Four steps of application

1. Know
2. Relate
3. Meditate
4. Practice

KNOW

Correct application always requires correct interpretation

Erroneous interpretation leads to erroneous application

Correct interpretation MAY lead to correct application

IMPORTANT: A passage may have one interpretation (meaning) but many, many applications. Example Mark 11:25.

To apply scripture accurately, you need to know the _____ and you need to know _____.

Take inventory of your strength (assets) and your weaknesses (liabilities) Romans 12:3

Your strengths will help you develop _____

Your weaknesses will help you develop _____

RELATE

We need to relate the Word of God to our _____

One way to look at the Christian Life is a series of _____

2 Corinthians 5:17

A new relationship to _____

A new relationship to _____

A new relationship to _____

A new relationship to _____

Some ways that God's Word affects our Relationships

Passages that _____

Passages that _____

Passages that _____

Passages that _____

Conclusion: James 1:22-25